Sport Management

The concentration in Sport Management is designed to prepare educators or non-educators for careers in the sport industry or as athletic directors. The Sport Management program provides learning experiences by combining sport management theory with practical application. The program provides students with leadership experiences supported by coursework in the Sport Sciences, as well as research experience in the sport industry. Students will gain the requisite knowledge, skills, and dispositions that will facilitate and enhance their opportunities to successfully acquire and execute careers within the sport industry.
